- 11:31:53 From Helma Irving : Pyramid Model- has observation cards could be shared with teachers and a less intimidating version of the functional assessment.
- 11:33:18 From Toni Stone : That is consistent with W MD
- 11:33:34 From Denise Taylor-Turner : We are slim to none, in regards to new referrals.
- 11:34:23 From Stacy Vargo : Our referrals have recently picked up. The beginning of the year was challengng
- 11:38:03 From Helma Irving : Bottom of the Pyramid technical assistance then move to coaching. So, team up with trainers to provide PM training and the Consultation provide TA... that then may lead to coaching.
- 11:39:17 From Helma Irving : Programs can't afford this on their own, so for State money to be put into this would be fabulous!
- 11:45:48 From Donna Greenleaf : Thank you, I have to run. These conversations are good for me to hear just to get an understanding of what is happening in your world. I appreciate the opportunity to sit in when I can.

Discussion of Interview Guide

- 11:47:17 From Kaya Swann : The questions are great just lengthy
- 11:47:34 From Dawn Marie Iannaco-Hahn : I have my own intake document I use for each consultation. I have one for families and one for director/teacher. With every consultation, I meet with the the director/teachers before I even go into the classroom to observe.
- 11:48:05 From Dawn Marie Iannaco-Hahn : I also schedule a meeting with the parent to complete my intake with them.
- 11:48:47 From Kate Sweeney Wasserman : That is wonderful Dawn!
- 11:49:01 From Kate Sweeney Wasserman : Thanks Kaya, we will work on a short version to support!
- 11:49:26 From Kaya Swann : Thank you Kate!
- 11:54:43 From Susan Kanter : Thank You!
- 11:54:52 From Tracy Gomer : Thank you!
- 11:54:56 From Rebecca Schaefer : Thanks so much!
- 11:54:56 From Toni Stone : Thank you this is helpful to hear how others are doing
- 11:54:58 From Briana Davis : thank you!
